Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, United Nations Day is designated by the United Nations General Assembly every year to commemorate the U.N.'s founding on October 24, 1945; and,

WHEREAS, On this occasion, we join the peoples of the world in reaffirming our commitment to the principles upon which the U.N. was founded: international peace and security, respect for human rights and the promotion of social and economic cooperation between nations; and,

WHEREAS, Since its creation 39 years ago, U.N. membership has risen from 51 to 159 nations, bridging global communities in an effort to create a unique forum for discussion and action; and,

WHEREAS, The U.N.'s focus is on the entire range of international issues that concern our world today: world hunger, energy, environmental protection and the international economic order; and,

WHEREAS, Americans have made a very great contribution to the creation and continuing work of the United Nations, a channel through which the U.S. can take productive action for world peace and prosperity:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 24, 1984, as in South Dakota, and I urge all citizens of South Dakota to participate in programs and activities designed to increase understanding of the problems and potentials of the U.S. and to develop ideas on how to make the United Nations more effective.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-third Day of October, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Four
